SBE/MDE Shares Proposed Special Education Teacher Standards Public Comment Open Until Feb. 27

The Michigan Department of Education released the Proposed Standards for the Preparation of Special Education Teachers.

These standards would represent a new endorsement titled Special Education Teacher. The standards will inform program development and continuous improvement efforts at Michigan's educator preparation institutions.

There's still time to review the proposed standards and share them with your friends and colleagues. The Public Comment portion remains open until Feb. 27.

Send public comments by Thurs., Feb. 27 - click the red button for direct access.
